

Strategic Planning Workshop Summary – February 2021

Celebrating Queer Black Mob – key themes:

Consultation: Work with local Mob

Celebration: Art, ceremony, dance. More Black and Indigenous performances

Education: Ongoing campaign on racism. Cultural awareness training

Resourcing Expertise: Pay for Indigenous expertise. Senior support for Queer Black Fruits.

Participation: Foster partnerships. Show up eg NAIDOC, Sorry Day

A Specific project that is underway: A mural, tree planting and picnic day – acknowledging and celebrating Queer Black Mob

Being Community Driven – key themes:

Connection:

Representative groups making decisions

Welcome and accessible entry to the Clubhouse

Understanding diversity and outreach to the community

Community events and other places we can connect eg Lantern Parade, businesses

Engage more youth and local volunteers

Communication & Transparency:

Committee decisions and process

Review email system to members

New member packs, surveys & being part of vision meetings

Regular web, newsletter & Facebook updates on what's happening

Calendar of event and annual communications plan

Capacity:

Building community

Skill sharing and mentoring

More intergenerational opportunities

Resources:

Look at grants and crowdfunding

Invest in volunteer & employee training – for greater safety and social connection

Volunteer rewards – documenting time towards tickets

Activities:

More Clubhouse events

Craft, gardening, food workshops and community art projects